

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO TODAY

Mrs. Huldah Potter-Loomis, palmist, socialist and suffragist, found guilty of violating clairvoyant ordinance, and fined $75 and costs.

Edward Fay, pickpocket, fined $5 and given 10 days in county jail. Fay is the man defended by W. W. O'Brien while latter was connected with corporation counsel's office, and because of which he resigned.

Fred G. Boneham and William R. Channell formerly booked on murder charge, arrested yesterday in connection with shooting of Mrs. Edmund Kaufman night of December 2. John Stacey and Fred Rabeneau, missing members of murder quartet, not yet caught.

James Feely, 131 E. Ontario, struck and seriously injured by Clark street car at Chicago ave. last night.

Witnesses yesterday testified that Inspector Revere had curbed the Black Hand and chased more than 300 women out of the North Side levee. Afterward discovered that witness had been told women were driven out in conversation with Revere's attorney.

Reported to 50th street police that Elsie Lynd, 20, had disappeared from her home Dec. 14, after starting downtown for work.

Wilhelmina Rabeneau, 2, 2978 South Park ave., burned to death in her home last night, setting fire to her clothes while playing with matches.

George Goebel, 1816 Wellingston, shot when he tried to hold up a policeman, died yesterday at Alexian Brothers' hospital.

George Busse, brother of former Mayor Busse, granted divorce from his wife at Waukegan yesterday. Alleged infidelity.

Application made to governor and board of pardons for stay of execution for Philip Sommerling, Ewald and Frank Shiblowski and Thomas Schultz, sentenced to hang Friday morning for the murder of Fred W. Guelzow, jr. Hearing set for Wednesday.

Police ban on music in saloons and restaurants lifted by Chief McWeeny, and privilege extended to all owners who respect ordinances and police regulations.

Gustave Falk, sailor, fell in river near Rush street bridge last night and was drowned.

Attorney Sidney Carr Carroll, 8 S. Dearborn street, alleged to have operated as loan agent, cited before Judge Landis to show cause why he should not be disbarred from practice in federal courts, filed answer yesterday that he had done nothing that violated his oaths in connection with practice of law. Case continued to Wednesday.

The civil service commission has prohibited political activity among county civil service employees.

Managers of Masonic temple building have asked permits to put in two life nets, as 12th and 4th floors, to prevent suicides. The well of the building is popu-